STATINTL

Many thanks for your letter of February 2nd. From all the foreign places you have visited I gather the impression that you are fast becoming a world traveler. Keeping in touch with approximately 200 people scattered over the world must be quite a task, although your letters are mimeographed. It is very difficult for me to keep up with local correspondence of which the volume is very small.

I would have answered your letter sooner, but the enclosure has just been returned after being reviewed by those who might have an interest. I have been informed that any additional letters would be of interest, and also any data on [] which you may have would be of value in making certain determinations.

It is suggested that if there happens to be any future correspondence that it be addressed as follows: Edward R. Saunders, []

Sincerely yours,

Edward R. Saunders
